

FOUNDATIONS OF HEALTH CARE MANAGEMENT

PRINCIPLES AND METHODS

BERNARD J. HEALEY
MARC C. MARCHESE

CONTENTS

---

Tables and Figures	xi
Introduction	xvii
The Authors	xxi
The Contributors	xxiii

PART ONE

Introduction to Health Care Management

Chapter 1 Critical Issues for the Future of Health Care in the United States	3
Health Care Reform Legislation	11
Errors in Health Care	12
Changing the Health Care System	13
Emphasis on Efficiency in Health Care Delivery	19

Building a New Process for Health Care Delivery	21
Productivity and Prioritization in Health Care	28
Chapter 2 Health Care Management	33
Management Theory	35
Management Innovation	44
Managerial Skills	46
Management Functions	47
Self-Managed Work Teams	50
Health Services Management	53
Management of Technology	58

PART TWO

Managing the External Environment

Chapter 3 Strategy and Structure: Choosing the Path to Success	67
Strategic Management and Structure	68
The Strategic Management Process	72
Organizational Design and Structure	86
Physician Organizations: A Closer Look	98
Technology and Structure	100

PART THREE

Managing Human Performance in Organizations

Chapter 4 Leadership as Plural	105
Leadership Basics	108
Leadership Theory	112

Employee Participation	119
Creating a Vision of Health Care Delivery	120
Empowerment and Responsibility	122
Improving Health Outcomes	123
Leadership and Culture	125
Adding Value in Health Care Delivery	131
 Chapter 5 Change, Motivation, and Innovation: Creating a Culture of Excellence	 135
The Change Process in Health Care Delivery	138
The Secret of Motivating Health Care Employees	142
The Need for Innovation in Health Care	148
The Effects of Culture Development on Motivation, Innovation, and the Facilitation of Change	154
 Chapter 6 Communication: Can You Hear Me Now?	 161
Communication Methods and Skills	165
How to Build Trust in Relationships	172
Communicating to Build a Thick Culture	176
Communicating to Motivate	178
Communication Problems and Medical Errors	182
Communicating to Innovate	185
Communicating to Add Value to Health Care Delivery	186
 Chapter 7 Physician Management	 191
Changing Environment for Physicians	195
Physician Management Concerns	201
Physician Reimbursement Issues	207
Patient Quality of Care Concerns	212

Physician Concerns	215
Professional Ethical Concerns	225
Political and Legal Affiliations and Concerns	228
Physician Management Models	231
Physicians as Managers	234

PART FOUR

Creating a High-Performance Workplace

Chapter 8 Human Resources Management and Health Care	245
The Role of Human Resources Professionals in Organizations	247
Rights of Employees and Employers	250
Critical Employee Attitudes Toward Work	257
Unions and the Health Care Industry	263
Evaluating the Management of Human Resources	269
Chapter 9 Staffing Health Care Organizations: Recruitment and Selection	281
Beginning the Staffing Process	282
Recruitment	289
Selection	302
Chapter 10 Employee Performance Improvement: The Pursuit of Quality Care	317
Employee Orientation and Mentoring	318
Employee Training	321
Performance Appraisal	334

PART FIVE*Special Areas of Health Care Management

Chapter 11 Health Care Marketing: Speaking the Language	351
The Marketing Process	352
Key Marketing Concepts	355
The Health Care Consumer	372
Marketing Strategy	374
Using Marketing Research in Health Care Delivery	378
Emerging Trends in Health Care Marketing	384
Chapter 12 Financial Management: Show Me the Money	389
Our Health Care System: What We Fund	391
The Cost of Health Care, and Historical and Projected National Spending	394
Government Health Care Intervention Efforts and the History of Health Insurance	402
Characteristics of Health Care Finance	406
Financial Challenges Confronting Providers, Third-Party Payers, and Patients	409
Cost-Effectiveness and Reform	412
Chapter 13 Ethics, the Law, and Doing Good	423
Ethics in the World of Health Care	425
Autonomy	427
Nonmaleficence and Beneficence	430
Justice	433
Morality	435

Codes of Ethics	439
Ethics Committees	441
Discrimination Issues in Health Care	443
Technology and Ethics	447
Chapter 14 A Look into the Future of Health Services	455
Economic Issues in Health Care	458
Reengineering Health Care Delivery	459
The Role of Leadership in Reengineering Health Care	467
The Importance of Organizational Culture in Reengineering Health Care	470
Consumer Empowerment	472
Innovation in Health Care Delivery	475
The Importance of Trust, Brand, and Reputation	478
Other Significant Forces Facing the Health Care Manager	480
References	485
Index	521